2. Persons intending to bid at the sale must attend in person or by a duly accredited agent. Intending bidders should deposit beforehand Rs. 50 as earnest money. The deposits of all the bidders will be returned at the close of the sale.

3. The President reserves to himself the right of refusing or accepting the highest or any bid that may be offered without assigning any reason whatsoever. The successful bidder shall forthwith deposit with the sale conducting officer an amount equal to two monthly instalments as security for the due performance of the contract. The sale shall not be deemed to have been completed until it is confirmed by the Municipal Council.

4. The successful bidder in whose favour the sale is confirmed shall be entitled to collect the tolls at the rates mentioned in Schedule B, on in-coming traffic only at the toll-gates and at no higher rates, and shall be bound to issue receipts in the form prescribed by the President, duly dated to the parties paying tolls. If higher rates than those specified in the schedule are demanded or collected by the contractor or his duly authorised agent, or if toll is recovered in respect of vehicles or animals on which toll is not leviable, the contractor shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100 for each such unauthorised demand or collection as may be fixed by the President. In default of the payment of the fine, the deposit furnished by the contractor will be forfeited. In case of doubt or dispute as to the levy of the fees, the contractor shall be bound by the orders of the President.

6. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold, the defaulting bidder being held responsible for losses due to resale but not entitled to profits arising from resale. If default is made in the punctual payment of any instalment, the contractor shall forfeit the deposit and the President shall be at liberty to resell or otherwise dispose of the right to collect toll for the unexpired period of the year.

If the contractor is a non-resident foreigner, he shall be deemed to have agreed to submit himself to the jurisdiction of the Civil Courts in Mysore and to be bound by any decree ex parte or otherwise, that may be passed against him by such Courts for any sums due in respect of the contract amount.
